

Dear ...

First of all, thank you for your kind thoughts and your precious gift.

As Aklease, we implement a gift and hospitality policy in line with the ethical principles we adopt in business world.

Our public responsibilities and ethical principles have a special importance in the performance of banking profession. For this reason, it does not seem appropriate for me to accept your gift/hospitality offer within the framework of our gift and hospitality policy and our sensitivity.

We ask for your support and understanding to this approach of Aklease, and we wish the continuation of our business relationship based on trust.

Kind regards,
